

1. General

When a customer concludes a Sonera One euro Sunday agreement, the rates specified for the customer's subscription type on the valid price list valid are applied and the customer gains the benefits described in these terms for the duration of the One euro Sunday.

Special features of the One euro Sunday agreement:

- standard-rate domestic calls for a total of max. €1/Sunday;
- fixed-term agreement period of 12 months;
- subscription agreements connected to the One euro Sunday agreement cannot be terminated with effect in the middle of the agreement period.

In the Sonera One euro Sunday agreement the customer specifies the subscription numbers to be connected to the agreement. The customer must be the owner of the subscriptions in question.

By this agreement, the terms of the customer's Sonera Mobile Subscriptions on which he/she has made a One euro Sunday agreement (hereafter Sonera One euro Sunday subscription) are amended. If there is any contradiction between the terms of the Sonera One euro Sunday agreement and the terms of the service agreement on a Sonera Mobile Subscription or Sonera's General Delivery Terms concerning Services, the terms of the Sonera One euro Sunday agreement have priority and are applied to the contractual relationship between Sonera and the customer.

2. Benefits

Standard-rate domestic calls from a One euro Sunday subscription on Sundays (00.00 am to 00.00 pm) cost max. €1/Sunday/subscription in total. The benefit does not apply to calls made to DNA's Prepaid subscriptions (for example, 04147, 04148, 04149, 04156, 04157, 04158, 04170, 04177, 04178, 04491 and 04492-prefixed numbers) or to subscriptions where the recipient gains benefits based on the calls he/she receives.

Note: The benefit applies only to standard-rate domestic calls and to Home Call calls. The benefit is not applied, for example, to calls to service or universal access numbers, international calls, calls made abroad, data calls or data transfer. In subscriptions with a call package, where the monthly charge contains call minutes, the calls covered by One euro Sunday reduce the package's call minutes by a maximum of one euro's worth.

3. Conclusion and termination of the agreement

The One euro Sunday agreement becomes effective as Sonera accepts the order submitted by the customer. Sonera sends the customer a confirmation of the agreement's entry into force by SMS to the customer's Sonera One euro Sunday subscription or by e-mail or by mail to the customer's billing address. If the customer has ordered the One euro Sunday service by using a remote communications medium, the customer is entitled to cancel the agreement within 14 days from the entry into force of the agreement by contacting Sonera Customer Service. In such a case, Sonera has the right to obtain a reasonable compensation from the customer for any benefit the customer may already have used.

The One euro Sunday agreement is valid for a fixed term of one (1) year (hereafter: agreement period). If the customer does not renew the agreement before the expiry of the agreement period, the benefit is automatically terminated at the end of the agreement period.

With regard to disconnection of the service and termination of the agreement, Sonera's General Delivery Terms for Consumer Customers concerning Services are applied.

After the expiry of the One euro Sunday agreement, the terms of the service agreement on a Sonera Mobile Subscription and Sonera's General Delivery Terms for Consumer Customers concerning Services are applied to the contractual relationship between the customer and Sonera.

4. Other terms

Unless otherwise agreed in the One euro Sunday agreement, the terms of the service agreement on a Sonera Mobile Subscription and Sonera's General Delivery Terms for Consumer Customers concerning Services are applied to the contractual relation between the customer and Sonera. The terms of the supplementary services of the Sonera Mobile Subscription are not changed by the Sonera One euro Sunday agreement, but potential service-specific terms and Sonera's General Delivery Terms for Consumer Customers concerning Services are applied to them.

Sonera is entitled to amend these terms by sending the customer an SMS notification to the customer's Sonera One euro Sunday subscription number or by notifying the customer by email or by mail to the customer's billing address at the latest one (1) month before the end of the agreement period. The change then enters into force at the end of the fixed-term agreement period.
